b) Statutory Non-Compliance Risk:

There have been inadvertent inconsistencies in the Company's historical corporate filings with the MCA, which may result in regulatory penalties or fines. These include the non-disclosure of certain share transfers in past annual returns and procedural lapses and inadequate disclosures in e-forms filed for further issue of shares, which were subsequently rectified through revised filings, some with delay and payment of additional fees. The Company has filed an adjudication application for these matters with the appropriate authority, which is currently under consideration, and is fully cooperating and will comply with any orders passed.
